PREFACE

The Holy Mass is divided into four main parts; the Introductory Rite, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist and the Concluding Rite. A major sub-part of the Liturgy of the Eucharist is “Offertory” during which God’s people (congregation) offer their best of gifts to God, either in cash or kind, as thanksgiving for what He continuously does for them. This major activity is always accompanied with songs of praise and thanksgiving, often led by the choir. To this regard, I took upon an initiative of compiling a good number of offertory songs which I think will go a long way in thrilling the congregation to stand on its feet and give thanks to God.

This booklet (which is a combination of earlier compiled offertory songs-volumes one to three, and a few added songs) contains 110 offertory songs which have been divided into five sections. Section one contains 21 songs, all in English while sections two to five comprise of offertory songs from a good number of well known languages in and around the Bamenda Ecclesiastical Province (such as Ejagham, Lamnso, Kenyang, Bangwa, Oroko, Ewondo, Lingala and many others). Sections three, four and five contain a few English songs while section two is purely traditional. Most of the songs in both sections are well known by most Catholic Christians in and out of this province even though a few of these songs are new and need to be taught.

Much care was taken in putting each song into a particular section. That is to say all the songs in each section follow the same rhythm from the first to the last thereby easing the choir’s ability to switch from one song to another without stopping or interrupting the accompanying instruments or the choir as a whole. These songs have been sung time and again in our churches and so there is no doubt that they are offering-oriented; the meanings of the traditional songs can be given by those who speak and understand the respective languages. It is hoped that these songs shall help choirs sing their best during Holy Masses, not only during offertory periods but will also continue to sing beautifully during all other parts of the Holy Mass.

A sincere thanks is expressed to the composers of these songs even though their names and the sol-fa and/or staff notations of the songs have not been included in this booklet. Most importantly, I thank God Almighty for giving me the strength and confidence to put forth this compilation. It is my ardent hope that this offertory song booklet serves the purpose for which it is intended and helps to raise the quality of singing in our churches and will also increase the quantity of offertory songs available to choirs. May God bless you all as you sing and offer Him best of gifts at His Holy altar.

2) We pray for pardon and for grace
To change the life that we have led;
And beg Thee for Thy Son's dear sake
To bless the living and the dead.

3) We bring our gifts we bring our hearts
O Lord, receive them, bless them all;
And grant we may Thy children be
To love and bless Thee evermore.

4) Now Jesus Christ's true flesh and blood
Shall be our sacrifice divine;
The same in Mass as on the cross
Though under form of bread and wine.

5) To God the Father, God the Son
The Holy Spirit, three in one;
All honour, glory, virtue be
To God our Father and our King.
